

Svegea of Sweden AB will handle the information you provided to us by submitting the form below in accordance with our Privacy Policy, which you as a customer, agreed on by clicking the “I accept the Privacy Policy” on the form.

Privacy Policy

Svegea of Sweden AB stores the following information:

- Name
- Surname
- Address
- Email address
- Telephone number

This information is used as follows:

- Customer registration for the possibility of issuance of an invoice after purchase.
- Contact information for easier communication process.

In all cases where customer information needs to be accessed will be done only by authorized personnel and specifically according to the above-defined purposes. No information will be shared with third parties.

The information will be kept in our system, from the last contact, for a maximum of 5 years.

The customer is entitled to retrieve all his stored information.

The customer has the right to change their stored information.

The customer is entitled to refuse the storage of information.

The customer always has the right to have all or selected parts of stored information.

If the customer wishes to process their own data, this can be done without any protest from Svegea of Sweden AB.

For all cases regarding processing of own information/data, kindly send email to: info@svegea.se